Portland, Ore., March 15.—Portland will have a team in the Oregon State Baseball association, as the brush league of this state is called. This much was settled today and Chester A. Whitemore and Dr. Emmet Drake will be the backers of the local team. Whitemore and Dr. Emmet Drake will be the backers of the Lucas club in this city last season while it lasted. It is a question yet whether the league will be a six-club affair, taking in Portland and Oregon City, or whether it will be held down to four teams, substituting Portland for Vancouver. Wash., which would be a member under a six-club arrangement, and dropping Oregon City. President Scoat of the league is in Portland for Vancouver and Oregon City. President Scoat of the league is in Portland be made to pay. Dr. Drake, who is scheduled for president of the local club, considers the prospects bright. "We can do nothing," said he, "until the schedule of the Coast league is published. If Portland is admitted to the league it will be only with the understanding that games will be played when the Coast league team is playing away from home."

Soldier Cook has not signed yet this season, but has had several offers from outside teams. Yesterday Cook received a contract from Fort Dodge, Ia., of the lowa State league, but he said last evening that he did not know whether he would sign or not. He has also had an offer from McCloskey to go to Boise City, and another offer from one of the teams in the Northern league. Cook has been out working with a number of the local players this spring and says he is in good shape and ready for the season to open at any time.
